Evaluation Key

M	Meeting Expectations
P	Progressing toward Expectations
N	Needs Improvement
X	Not assessed at this time

We believe the purpose of grading is to communicate individual academic progress and social development to students, parents, and teachers. It will also serve as a means to guide improvement. A student's progress is measured using the Common Core Learning Standards and the Clarence Central School District's curriculum and expectations. This report card will reflect the extent to which a student achieves a specific level of knowledge, or skill, based on standards presented during the grading period.
